QUICK REFERENCE GUIDE – SUPPORT FOR NEW BRUNSWICK WORKERS & STUDENTS AFFECTED BY COVID-19

Details/Notes
Provincial Support
One-Time $900 Benefit	Will be administered through the Red Cross to help bridge the time between when people lose their employment or close their business and when they receive their federal benefit.
Six-Month Moratorium on Student Loan Payments and Interest
Protection for New Brunswick Tenants	The authority of landlords to evict tenants for non-payment of rent has been suspended through May 31
Social Assistance Program	Eligibility determined on a case by case basis. Contact regional social development offices to learn more.
Federal Support
Employment Insurance (EI)	For individuals who were recently laid off or have reduced hours and qualify for Employment Insurance benefits. Requests can be submitted today (the typical period has been waived).
Canada Emergency Response Benefit (CERB)	A taxable benefit of $2,000 a month for up to 4 months to anyone who has earned $5,000 in the last 12 months or calendar year for: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> workers who must stop working due to COVID-19 and do not have access to paid leave or other income support. workers who are sick, quarantined, or taking care of someone who is sick with COVID-19. working parents who must stay home without pay to care for children that are sick or need additional care because of school and daycare closures. workers who still have their employment but are not being paid because there is currently not sufficient work and their employer has asked them not to come to work. wage earners and self-employed individuals, including contract workers, who would not otherwise be eligible for Employment Insurance.
Increased Canada Child Benefit	An extra $300 per child through the Canada Child Benefit (CCB) for 2019-20. This will mean approximately $550 more for the average family. Those who already receive the Canada Child Benefit do not need to re-apply.
Goods and Services Tax Credit	A one-time special payment (paid by early May) for low- and modest-income families. The average additional benefit will be close to $400 for single individuals and close to $600 for couples. There is no need to apply for this payment. If you are eligible, you will get it automatically.
Income Tax Filing and Payment Due Dates Deferred	For individuals (other than trusts), the return filing due date will be deferred until June 1, 2020. The deadline to pay any balance due for your individual income tax and benefit return for 2019 has been extended to September 1, 2020.
